

WAR HERO IS HELD AFTER TRUCK RAMS SOCIALIST CROWD

Kroft Says Stranger Grabbed
Wheel and Charged
Into Gathering.

Louis Kroft, No. 577 Westchester Avenue, Bronx, a wounded soldier who won the Distinguished Service Cross in France, was arraigned in the Manhattan Court today accused of charging into a Socialist meeting at Longwood and Prospect Avenues, Bronx, with a truck carrying a fire and drum corps playing a patriotic air.

Magistrate Nolan reduced the charge from assault to reckless driving and adjourned the case to Nov. 2. Milton Altshuler, counsel for the soldier, said the latter ought to be the complainant instead of the prisoner.

"Kroft's truck, which is his means of making a living, was practically wrecked by the crowd," said the lawyer.

The truck, covered with signs advertising an entertainment to be given by Bronx Post No. 95, Veterans of Foreign Wars, was being driven by Kroft. He said a man he did not know sprang aboard the truck and seized the steering wheel, turning toward the Socialist gathering.

Kroft said he applied the emergency brake. Four men and a boy were knocked down and so badly hurt that they required medical attention. The crowd swarmed angrily about the truck and Kroft was saved from violence by Patrolman Doyle, who, although not in uniform, fought his way through the crowd, boarded the truck and showed his shield.

BOYS IN STOLEN AUTO HELD.

Deny Knowledge of Theft After Car Hits Two and Overturns.

Frank Santucci, eighteen, of No. 499 Henry Street, and Salvatore Marone, nineteen, of No. 629 Hicks Street, Brooklyn, the police say, admitted today they were passengers in a stolen automobile which struck a man and a boy and overturned yesterday at Third Avenue and 14th Street, Brooklyn. The youths denied they knew the car was stolen. In Adams Street Court today they were held in $1,000 bail each, charged with grand larceny.

Three other men in the car have not been caught. The car was stolen from Joseph Stanetta, who left it in front of No. 484 Henry Street at luncheon hour.

TENANT MUST SHOW HE CAN'T MOVE OUT

Court Rules for Landlord in Case
Where a Stay of Eviction
Had Been Granted.

Tenants who wish to take advantage of the new rent laws by refusing to move or to pay increased rent must be careful to see that they themselves comply with the law. This was brought out in a decision today by the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court in the case of Tobia Kaplan, landlord of No. 417 Throop Avenue, Brooklyn, against Charles Enderby, a tenant.

NECK BROKEN; CONSCIOUS.

Barge Captain's Case Interprets
Hospital Surgeons.

Although his neck is broken, Captain Sidney Masten of the Barge "Maggie" Light, which lies at the foot of Richmond Street, Brooklyn, is conscious today in Long Island College Hospital and resting easily. He dropped twenty feet to the bottom of his barge. Masten's case has aroused great interest among the surgeons. He is twenty-eight years old.
